GONE FISHING

David took a well-deserved and hard earned break to go fishing with friends in early July. The group drove 319km from Auckland to Whakatane on the East Coast of the North Island and spent a week fishing from a game boat in the Hicks Bay area. While the fishing for snapper and Kingfish was successful each day, the highlight came four hours off the coast, in slightly choppy seas and moderate 15 knot winds. With three strikes in less than a minute they hooked an 80kg and 110kg Blue Fin Tuna trolling with various lures. While one got away after ninety minutes, David fought the 80kg fish for just under two hours and then his friend Tollar took over and after another 90 minutes managed to land it. Fisherman Jordan took two and a half hours to land his 110kg fish. Upon their return a number of very happy friends and family were given delicious fresh tuna. David's already booked again for next July.
